INTRODUCTION.

To the Members of the Stubbs Family:

This little pamphlet is printed for private distribution only. A copy will be presented to each member of the family, with the hope that after a close examination a report will be made of all errors, either of omission or commission, to the undersigned for correction in the next edition.

The author is painfully aware of its imperfections, but it is the best that he could extort from the various branches of the family after the expenditure of much time and labor. On account of apathy and indifference, his letters of inquiry were frequently unanswered; hence the incompleteness of several lines. His thanks are due, however, and are hereby tendered to several members for the valuable assistance given him.

While conscious of the incompleteness of his work, the author is yet emboldened to publish what he has, realizing that the information contained herein is too valuable to be withheld from print. He hopes in the future to publish a revised and more complete edition, and will do so at an early day if every member of the family will assist in making the necessary corrections and amendments.

Whatever the merits of this little pamphlet may be, it is given to the family with the modest hope that it may stimulate each and every member to nobler deeds and higher aspirations.

PREFACE.

In writing of the Stubbs family every effort has been made to secure all the information possible, both in England and America. There is accordingly given, first, a chapter embodying "gleanings" that have been gathered from various sources in England, mainly, however, from a delightful little volume, "The Lays and Leaves of the Forest" (of Knaresborough), by Rev. Thos. Parkinson—whose mother was a Stubbs.

The next chapter is devoted to the early settlers by the name of Stubbs in America, with their land grants, etc.

The remainder of the pamphlet is devoted to the descendants of John Stubbs of Cappahosic, the earliest immigrant to Virginia (about 1652), who is believed to be the ancestor of all the Southern Stubbses.

CHAPTER I.

GLEANINGS FROM ENGLAND.

THE ORIGIN OF THE FAMILY OF STUBBS

is by common consent located in the Forest of Knaresborough, Yorkshire, England. This Royal Forest of Knaresborough is a range of country about twenty miles in length and eight in width, diversified with mountain and moor, rocky eminences and fertile valleys, and extending from Knaresborough westward and south-westward to the heather-clad hills overlooking Bolton Abbey. Originally it was a wild and rugged district with rich, heavily-wooded valleys, and uplands covered with ferns and heathers, a place admirably adapted as a refuge for the superstitions of the old British and Saxon creeds. In mediæval times it was surrounded by feudal strongholds and ecclesiastical establishments of the first magnitude. Later the lowlands were enclosed and cultivated, but wide, wild uncultivated tracts of great extent remained open and unclaimed until the end of the Eighteenth Century, when by Act of Parliament it was enclosed.

Modern times have completely changed the original scenes, and to-day nothing remains of the Forest but its name. The town of Leeds has taken possession of the Washburn valley and transformed it into a chain of reservoirs to supply water to the city. An obscure hamlet has risen into a fashionable, world-famed town of Harrogate, where healing waters and bracing breezes attract the invalid from every clime. Eugene Aram, Blind Jack of Knaresborough and the famous Mother Shipton are some of the local characters and celebrities of this Forest.

In this Forest originated many of the families whose names are familiar to us all. The Yorkshire Archæological Society has recently published a roll for the whole county of Yorkshire, taken from the rolls of the King's Exchequer of the names who paid a subsidy or tax to the King in the second year of King Richard II. (June, 1378, to June, 1379). The text is in Latin, but can be easily translated. In this list are many familiar names—some in their primitive spelling, indicating their origin. Here are some of them: Richard Wil-son (that is, Richard, the son of Wil); Thomas Atkyns-son, Adam Alice-son, Richard Nelle-son, Agnes Nelle-doghter, John de Beckwith, William del Hall, William del West, John Cowbird, Richard Carter, Richard Lyster (Lister, i. e., Richard the Dyer), Agnes Parcour (the park keeper, now Parker), Richard Polayn (now Pullein, a forest name derived from "Pullus," a colt given to the keeper of the Royal stud), William Stubbe (the ancestor at an early date of the late illustrious Right Rev. William Stubbs, Bishop of Oxford), William de Thakwra (a name made famous by his descendant William Makepeace Thackeray), Elias Moor-house, Richard Schiphird (i. e., Sheep-herd, now Shepard), Thomas del Holme (i. e., of the "holm" or flat land by the water, now Holmes), Margaret Webster (a trade name, a weaver), Robert Ffleshewer (a flesh cutter or butcher, now Fletcher).

Besides the above may be found the familiar names of Legitt, Hudson, Banks, Simpson, Swynton, Deen, Brewstir, Colyer, Johnson, Robynson, Scott, Moss, Hill, Gyll, Neusom, Turpyn, Tailour, Young, Wright, Milner, Boller, Bland and others.

From a poem called "The Hunt," given in "The Lays and Leaves of the Forest" (of Knaresborough), by the Rev. Thomas Parkinson, the following verses are selected:

"John Jeffrey of 'The Trees' is there,
And Stubbs of Whitewall Nook—
Guy Palmes of Lindley th' sport to share
Hath come o'er moor and brook."

* * * * *

"But oft a root though hid away
By shoot is not unknown,
And Fairfax, Stubbs and Thackeray
Are names the world doth own."

The Stubbses were then foresters from the Royal Forest of Knaresborough. As before mentioned, in the subsidy roll of the second year of Richard II. (1378-1379), for the Villa de Clynt, occurs the entry, Willelmus Stubbe et uxor:

"The home of William Stubbe and his wife was at Birstwith, then included in Villa de Clynt."

William was probably the first who bore the name of Stubbe. The name was not fixed fifty years afterward, as his grandsons were still called "de Stubbe" or "Stubbes." The name is thought to be derived from "stob" or "stub," the root end of a broken tree. Such an object may have existed in the vicinity of the family residence, and hence the members would receive the designation "de," i. e., of Stubb or Stubbs. (See "Lay and Leaves of the Forest," by Rev. Thomas Parkinson.)

The Yorkshire Archæological Society's Journal mentions that "about 1350 A. D. flourished Thomas de Stubbes, or Stubs, who was born in Yorkshire and entered the order of Black Friars at York and became a Master of Theology. He was remarkable for ecclesiastical learning and religious life. He was ordained Priest

Dec. 20th, 1343, A. D., in Durham Cathedral, but the date of his death is unknown. From his learned pen fourteen valuable works proceeded."

From a sketch of the ancestry of the late Bishop William Stubbs of Oxford, it appears that—

"William Stubbe of 1379 A. D. had a son also named William, and his son, John de Stubbes, in 1430 was an officer,—the Grave of the Forest of Knaresborough. John de Stubbes' son, William Stubbes, resided at Ripon, but John de Stubbes' property at Birstwith descended in 1442 to William's son Thomas. This Thomas was followed in succession by his son, also named Thomas, in 1490. This second Thomas was also 'Grave of the Forest,' and therefore had probably returned to the residence at Birstwith in 1498. His brother, William Stubbs, was chaplain in 1516 to the Shepherd Lord Clifford of Skipton and Barden. Thomas Stubbs died in 1535, and his son and successor, Miles Stubbs, died in 1555. Miles left two sons—William, the elder, married Alice Belton and went to reside at Felliscliffe; John, the other brother, also resided at same place. William of Felliscliffe died in 1575. His third son was Thomas Stubbs, who resided at Whitewall and died there in 1648, aged 75 years. Thomas the son of Thomas of Whitewall was connected by marriage with the Atkinsons, who held one of the principal farms under the Ingilby family of Ripley at Haverah Park, and between 1664 and 1672 he succeeded Thomas Atkinson there as tenant. His son, Thomas Stubbs, born 1650, married Alice Simpson of Clint and died in 1716.

"Though tenants on the farm of Haverah Park the family was of substantial yeoman rank, owning considerable property in the neighborhood. The eldest son of Thomas, and his successor on the farm, was John Stubbs, who had numerous descent. The fourth son of Thomas was Joseph Stubbs, who broke away from the family home and resided at Graystone Plain in Felliscliffe. He had three sons—Thomas, Joseph and William—who resided in London and from whom descended the Rev. Stewart Dixon Stubbs, vicar of St. James's, Pentonville. Thomas Stubbs, the eldest son, born in 1735, removed to Ripley and thence he or his descendants successively to Boroughbridge and Knaresborough, where, in the last generation, the family occupied the position of wine merchants, bankers and solicitors. At Knaresborough in 1825 the great-grandson of Thomas Stubbs of Ripley was born, Bishop William Stubbs, the subject of this article."

A study of the pedigree of Bishop Stubbs will show many branches unaccounted for. It is suggested by one of our English cousins that a son of John, the son of Miles above, went to London and may be the progenitor of the John Stubbs who came early to Virginia. In a recent letter to the writer from Rev. Charles William Stubbs, D. D., Dean of Ely, given below, mention is made of Stubbses in later times in Shropshire, Suffolk and London.

In 1620 "Mr. Stubbs" bought of Mr. Thomas Maddox for £25 two shares in the Virginia Company of London. Mr. Stubbs was also member of the London Company in London in 1622 (Brown's Genesis of U. S., page 940). That a descendant of this Mr. Stubbs came to Virginia and settled is highly probable.

In Burke's General Armory we find "Lawrence Stubbs and Richard Stubbs' (1525) arms in the chapel Balliol College, Oxford." (Vist. Oxon. 1574.)

"Sa. on a chevron engrailed between in chief two lilies and in base a pheon ar. three leopards' faces az. a chief gu. charged with two keys saltirewise between as many trunks of trees eradicated and couped or. pierced through with arrow of the second."

The coat of arms as given by our English cousins is described as follows:

"Field of shield azure, with bend in gold upon which are three buckles in sable. Upon the field are stags' horns with an arrow head above them. The stag's head above is the same which Edward I. of England used upon his coat of arms.

The motto is Aequo adeste animo (Be of just mind).

Arms: Az. on a bend or. between three stag's horns pierced with arrows, three buckles sa.

Crest: A stag's head.

Motto: Aequo adeste animo. Be ye ready with unruffled courage.

The following is a copy of letter received from Rev. Charles William Stubbs, D. D., Dean of Ely:

“My Dear Sir—There is little doubt, I think, that Knaresborough Forest is the original home of the Stubbs, the village of Fewston and its neighborhood not far from the Harrogate being its centre. My grandfather, who at one time lived at New Hall, a substantial yeoman farmer and corn factor, close to Fewston, and the family may be traced back steadily to the time of Richard II., when William Stubbe, 1379, is found on the roll. In 1430 his grandson, John de Stubbes, was “reeve” of the Forest of Knaresborough, so on down through the centuries, Johns, Williams, Thomases, for the most part. There are Stubbses also in later times to be found in Shropshire, Suffolk and London. In this neighborhood one of the oldest of the Norman families, the Le Stranges, married an Alice Stubbs of Ledgeford, and I saw the other day over the old Inigo Jones gateway carved the arms of Sir Harmon Le Strange quartered with those of his wife. The Stubbs arms of course you know. The Stubbs type of build and face is, I fancy, very persistent. Bishop Stubbs and myself trace back to a common ancestor two centuries, but our friends have said there was a distinct family likeness, especially of coloring. The habit of blushing pretty late in life is a noticeable trait and one of which I at least do not choose to be ashamed. A son of the Shropshire stock whom I knew in Liverpool was possessed of the same physical heredity’.

“Historically I suppose we may be proud of Thomas the Dominican Monk of York; Historian Philip Stubbs, author of Anatomy and Malady; John Stubbs, the Puritan pamphleteer; George Stubbs, the great horse painter.

“If I come to America again, as I may possibly do next winter, we must try to meet. I need hardly say that if you are in England I shall be glad to welcome you here.

“Cousinly yours,

“CHARLES W. STUBBS.”

ILLUSTRIOUS MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY.

Biographical dictionaries contain accounts of several Stubbses who have become famous. Allusion has already been made to Thomas the Dominican Monk; to the late Right Rev. William Stubbs, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Oxford; to the Rev. Charles W. Stubbs, D. D., Dean of Ely, and to Rev. Stewart Dixon Stubbs, D. D., Vicar of St. James.

Another distinguished minister was John Stubbs, who, according to Fox's Journal, was a very zealous itinerant Quaker preacher. He traveled extensively in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and Holland. He was a man of great literary attainments and was one of those who out of thirty languages paved the way of "thee" and "thou" as the words with which to address a single person. He finally came to America with Fox, and seems never to have returned.

In the legal and political world two distinguished representatives of the Stubbs family are found.

First, John Stubbs, an English lawyer and Puritan, born 1540. He wrote a pamphlet against Queen Elizabeth's marriage with the Duke of Anjou, entitled "The Discovery of a Gaping Gulf Wherein England is Like to be Swallowed by Another French Marriage," and was condemned to lose his right hand. The sentence was carried out and the intrepid lawyer raised his cap with the other hand and said, "God save the Queen."

Second, Henry Stubbs was a great English scholar and writer, born in 1631, in Lincolnshire. He joined the party of Cromwell during the civil war and wrote "A Vindication of Sir Harry Vane," "Light Shining Out of Darkness," and other works. After the restoration he went over to the royalists and published numerous attacks upon his former friends. He was accidentally drowned in 1676.

George Stubbs, born 1724 in Liverpool, was a very distinguished painter. Possessed of an extensive knowledge of anatomy, he excelled in delineating animals, particularly horses. He published in 1766 a treatise on "The Anatomy of the Horse." His picture of the "Grosvenor Hunt" is esteemed a masterpiece. He died in 1806.

But the most distinguished member of the family, past or present, was the great prelate and historian, to whom frequent mention has already been made, Bishop William Stubbs of Oxford, whose death recently occurred. Born at Knaresborough in 1825 and educated at Christ Church, Oxford, he became a fellow of Trinity and was ordained in 1848. He became Regius Professor of History at Oxford in 1866, Bishop of Chester in 1884, and

Bishop of Oxford in 1888. He was author of many works. His work, "The Constitutional History of England," is acknowledged the world over as a standard authority. He was nominated on behalf of the Crown in 1879 by the late Earl of Beaconsfield to the canonry. The graceful act on the part of the Premier was received by all parties with much favor as the recognition of great erudition and untiring industry, and merited the encomium of the "Review" as being equally to the honor "of him who gave and him who took."

BISHOP STUBBS married, 1859, Catherine Dellar of Naverstock and had issue:

- (1) William Walter, b. 1866, now Assistant Master at Dal-
wich College; (2) Launcelot Henlock Ascough, b. 1869;
- (3) Lawrence Morley, b. 1874; (4) Wilfred Thomas, b.
1875; (5) Reginald Edward, b. 1876; (6) Katherine Isa-bella, b. 1863.

CHAPTER II.

IMMIGRATION TO AMERICA.

Mention has already been made of the purchase by Mr. Stubbs of Mr. Thomas Maddox for £25 two shares of the Virginia Company of London, Nov. 13th, 1620. He was also a member of the London Company in 1622. Probably John, the son of this man, settled in Virginia, as the old court records show a John Stubbs in Virginia in 1671. It is highly probable that John patented lands in Virginia as early as 1652, since we find on the land books at Richmond that John repatented 300 acres, patented by William Roberts in 1652 and subsequently escheated to the commonwealth. In this patent, given below, this land adjoined the lands of said Stubbs, because in "its metes and bounds" it mentions one of them as the said "Stubbs spring." It is believed that this John or his father patented before this a large tract adjoining this (Roberts') tract, since he was possessed later of a large area. He also, in 1706, obtained the escheated lands of Christopher Webster, 150 acres. In 1703 he patents 50 acres (1 head right) betwixt the lands of Augustine Warner, Mr. Woll and William Bolling, in another part of the county, now a part of White Marsh ("Stubbs"). The records of Gloucester county, Virginia, were destroyed in 1820 and again during the late civil war, and hence the absence of valuable information concerning the early settlers of this county. The land books at Richmond and the records of Petsworth and Abingdon Churches in Gloucester county are the chief sources of information at this early date.

Here are the copies of the patents from the land books at Richmond:

"In 1652 William Roberts patents 300 acres of land on the N. side of York River and N. W. side and at ye mouth of Jones Creek, bounded as follows: South up Jones Creek, east upon a white marsh, north upon the lands of Ed. West upon York River." (Vol. X., page 214.)

This land was escheated to the commonwealth and in 1714 John Stubbs repatented it, and it is thus described on the Land

Book, Vol. X., page 537: "In Petso (Petsworth) parish, Gloucester county, Virginia, beginning on Jones Creek and running along a gut, and thence on south side to the mouth of said gut, and thence N. W. to an ash tree, and thence to a holly bush in a white marsh, and thence N. 80° to a small pine and hickory standing near the branch, and on, crossing the head of Fleming's little creek, and then N. E. 74 poles, etc., to the marsh of said creek, and thence south near to the said Stubbs' spring, and thence S. to York River, and thence down the river 104 poles to the beginning."

This land adjoined the land upon which the original home of John Stubbs was located, and since all of this section was patented about 1652, soon after the opening of the county to settlers, it is highly probable that John Stubbs originally patented his home tract about the same time that William Roberts did the escheated tract.

In 1703 John Stubbs patents 50 acres (1 Head right, John Maytor) in Abingdon parish, Gloucester county, Virginia, betwixt the lands of Augustine Warner, Mr. Woll and Wm. Bolling. Vol. IX., page 535.

In 1702 John Stubbs patents 150 acres, viz.: "Christopher Webster's escheated land as per William Jones, deputy of Mathew Pope, escheator of same county, and a jury sworn before him for that purpose, 15th May, 1701, John Stubbs, of County of Gloucester, hath made composition, etc., this 25th May, 1702. ffr. Nicholson, Gov."

These lands were situated on York River and Jones Creek, and included the Cappahosic tract, together with "Valley Front" and "Concord" (formerly Mulberry Hall), now owned by the writer. John Stubbs "the younger," in 1786, sold Cappahosic out of the family. It was repurchased by the father of the author in 1852, and by him sold in 1868. "Valley Front" and "Concord," parts of the original tract, are still held in the family. At "Valley Front" is situated the old home, and here, too, is the burying ground of the Stubbses.

In the old General Court records of Virginia occurs a suit in 1671 between John Stubbs and Richard Moore, with "Lawrence Smith and Richard Booker appointed by court to adjust the differences."

In the York records in 1672 is a suit of John Stubbs vs. William Gilbert.

In 1698-99 and '02 the names of John and Richard Stubbs occur several times.

In 1702 Richard Stubbs was arrested by John Young for debt, and, said Young not prosecuting, was discharged. This is the last time that his name is found in Virginia.

It may be mentioned here that in 1704 a Richard Stubbs is among the petitioners for a court in the precinct of Neckham, in County of Bath, North Carolina (N. C. H. & G. Reg., Vol. I., No. 3, page 162). It is almost certain that this Richard moved from Gloucester county, Virginia, to Bath county, North Carolina, and became the ancestor of all of the North and South Carolina Stubbses, as will be shown later.

. From the Abingdon parish record the following are taken :

"Sus [anna] dau. of John and Susannah Stubbs, b. Aug. ye 9th, 1678.

Mildred, dau. of Capt. John and Eliz'th Smith, b. April, 1699.

John, son of John and Mildred Stubbs, b. May ye 8th, 1722.

Mildred, daughter of John and Jane Stubbs, b. October ye 12th, 1748.

Besides the above there are baptisms of slaves: from 1702 to 1714, belonging to "Mrs. Stubbs;" from 1714 to 1718, belonging to "Mrs. Susannah Stubbs;" from 1723 to 1740, belonging to "Mr. John Stubbs;" from 1740 to 1747, belonging to "Capt. John Stubbs." Also, in 1747, slaves belonging to "Mr. John Stubbs, Jr."

STUBBSES IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Allusion has been made to John Stubbs, a distinguished Quaker preacher, who came to America with Fox and seems never to have returned. This was 1671-1673. Whether this John was the ancestor or a relative of the Thomas who married, in 1721, Mary Minor, in Chester county, Pennsylvania, is unknown to the writer. They were both Quakers. Hon Jesse Stubbs, at a reunion of the Stubbs family in West Elkton, Ohio, August 28th, 1895, gave the genealogy of the descendants of this couple. He claims that this Thomas (died 1763) came from England to America in 1718; that he married, in Chester county, Pa., Mary Minor (who was from Ireland though of English parents) in September, 1721. They had nine children, viz.: Daniel, Esther, Thomas, John, Joseph, Mary, Elizabeth, Sarah and Ann. The descendants of these children are now found scattered all over the Union.

John, the fourth child, moved from Pennsylvania to North Carolina in 1755, and married Esther Maddocks (also of Pennsylvania), daughter of Joseph Maddocks, in 1757 or 1758. To this couple were born fourteen children, six of whom were born in North Carolina, viz.: Nathan, Isaac, John, Mary, Samuel and Esther. In 1768 they removed to Georgia, about thirty miles from Augusta, where the rest of their children were born, viz.: Hannah, Joseph, Rachel, Thomas, Deborah, Sarah, Jesse and William. John died December 27th, 1803, and Esther Maddocks Stubbs in 1786, both in Georgia. All of the children (except one, Sarah, who died young,) married in Georgia. After the death of their father they all moved to Ohio (1804 or 1805) and settled in the southwestern part, along and near Elk Creek, and all lived until 1828. The descendants of John Stubbs are widely scattered throughout the West and Northwest and are thought to be greater in number than those of his brothers and sisters. His total number of grandchildren were ninety-two, great-grandchildren nearly 500, and great-great-grandchildren will probably reach 1,500 or 2,000. (This was in 1895.)

In a letter from Hon. Lewis D. Stubbs of Richmond, Indiana, he says:

"Samuel (above), born May 10th, 1766, died July 28th, 1846, was my grandfather, and he married, January 5th, 1791, Mary Jones. The issue of this union was ten children, of whom my father (born November 13th, 1807,) was the only survivor. He married also a Jones who came from Georgia. One of my brothers was a member of the Eleventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the war between the States, first as sergeant, then captain of his company, and finally rose to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel; was at Chickamauga, Atlanta, etc. Joel Cloud of Georgia married one of my grandfather's sisters, and I have often heard from my grandfather of his brothers and sisters, that all their relatives had moved away from the South except one Joel Cloud, who lived near Wrightsboro, Ga. One or more brothers of John Stubbs went to North Carolina and afterward to Georgia, as I understand, about the same time that John went, but their descendants also moved to Ohio about 1804 or 1805 and lived near Mount Pleasant. There are a number of the Stubbs family living in Lancaster county, Pa. They are farmers and in possession of large estates. Some of them are prominent citizens and have occupied important positions."

A letter from President J. E. Stubbs, now of Reno, Nevada, says:

"My father, an only son, was born in the city of Middleton, Pa. His grandfather (Thomas) came from England and settled in that State. My father moved to Ashland, Ohio, in 1840. The family roll call is as follows:

"J. D. STUBBS AND WIFE, Ashland, Ohio.

"Mrs. Elizabeth Dorland, eldest child, Ashland, Ohio.

"D. D. Stubbs, O. & O. Steamship Line, San Francisco, Cal.

"J. C. Stubbs, Vice-President Southern Pacific Railway Company, San Francisco, Cal.

"J. E. Stubbs, President University of Nevada, Reno, Nevada.

"Mary N. Stubbs, Ashland, Ohio.

"W. G. Stubbs, C. O. & T. Co., San Francisco, Cal."

Hon. George W. Stubbs, attorney-at-law, Indianapolis, Ind., whose son, Dr. George W. Stubbs, has recently settled in Crowley, La., writes:

"My grandfather, Jesse (see above), who was next to youngest child of John and Esther (Maddocks) Stubbs, settled just across the line from Ohio in Indiana when he moved from Georgia."

I am informed that Mr. D. E. Stubbs of Eaton, Ohio, is collecting information for a history and genealogy of the descendants of Thomas and Mary Minor. This branch of the Stubbs family in America will, therefore, be dismissed with the above brief recital, given to explain who were those Stubbses whose names are so frequently found in the early records of Georgia.

CHAPTER III.

STUBBS FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND THE SOUTH.

Although it is believed that a son of the Mr. Stubbs who bought of Mr. Thomas Maddox the two shares of the Virginia Company in 1620, settled in Virginia about 1652, there are no official records known to prove it. The first official record occurs in 1671. From that time on the name of John Stubbs occurs frequently in the court records, land books and church registers.

Our official records of births begin in the Abingdon parish register in 1678, with Sus [anna], the daughter of John and Susannah Stubbs. After this date occur in records the names of Richard, Thomas, John and Francis Stubbs, presumably the sons of John and Susannah Stubbs.

Richard apparently left the State in 1703 and probably went to Bath county, North Carolina (see page 20).

Thomas signs the protest, with others, in the vestry book of Petsworth parish, against transubstantiation in 1714, was Sheriff of Gloucester county in 1735, member of vestry of Petsworth from 1745 to his death, in 1762.

John (afterward Captain) was a member of the vestry of Petsworth from 1748 to his death, in 1760.

Francis was processioner in Second precinct in 1741 and member of the vestry of Petsworth from 1753 to his death, in 1767.

The Petsworth vestry book mentions the death of John Stubbs in 1719. It is believed that he was the husband of Susannah and father of the four boys given above, and the ancestor of all of the Stubbses of the South. By being called John, Jr., in 1701, it is probable that he was the son of John the immigrant and perhaps the grandson of the shareholder in the London Company (1620-1622).

STUBBSES OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Mention has already been made of Richard Stubbs, the son of John and Susannah Stubbs. This Richard appears in the York records between 1698 and 1702 as plaintiff and defendant in several suits. In the latter year John Young has him arrested for debt, and, failing to prosecute at the time, the said Richard is discharged. His name does not occur subsequently in the Virginia records.

In 1704 Richard Stubbs was among the petitioners for a court in the precinct of Neckham, in the County of Bath, North Carolina. (Vol. I., No. 3, page 162, N. C. H. & G. Reg.)

The will of Thomas Stubbs, dated January 17th, 1738. proved March 7th, 1738. mentions sons William, Thomas, Bassett (?) (Everitt), John and Richard, and daughters Hannah and Mary. (N. C. H. & G. Reg.) This Thomas Stubbs evidently married Mary Everitt, as per following deeds:

Thomas Stubbs and wife Mary, April 14th, 1722, a conveyance to Nathaniel Everitt, 100 acres land near Morattucks bridge, adjoining lands of Benjamin Blount. Witnesses, William Rodes and Cornelius Callahan.

Nath. Everitt to Thomas Stubbs, a conveyance of same land, with same witnesses. (Chowan County Deeds, Book C, No. 1, in N. C. H. & G. R., Vol. II., page 144.)

The will of Richard Stubbs, Jr., of Tyrrell county, N. C., February 25th, 1754, mentions brothers Everitt, William, Thomas and John; Ann Jones, sister Mary and my two other sisters; brothers Thomas and Everitt, executors; testators, Esther Walker and Mary Stubbs. (Vol. I., No. 4, page 486, N. C. H. & G. R.)

John Stubbs, in 1749, witnesses will of John Green in Bladen county.

Will of William Stubbs of Bath, December 8th, 1756, proved in Beaufort county 14th June, 1757, mentions son William, wife Jean and daughter Margaret and makes them executors; teste, John Alderson, Samuel Thompson and Peter Caila. (N. C. H. & G. R.)

William Stubbs, in 1751, attests will of Seth Pilkinston of Beaufort county, N. C. (Ibid.)

William Stubbs, member of jury of Tyrrell county, 1739.

William Stubbs appointed sergeant-at-arms by House. 1746.

Thomas Stubbs member of jury of Bath county, 1725.

Legacy of Matthew Rowan of New Hanover, April 17th, 1760, to John Stubbs, son of James Stubbs of Bath county.

William Stubbs and Jean Cullen were married December, 1733, in St. Thomas parish, Beaufort precinct.

From the above, taken from the North Carolina records as given in North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register, it would appear that Richard had at least two sons, Thomas and James.

(I.) THOMAS married Mary Everitt and had

(1) William, (2) Thomas, (3) Everitt, (4) John and (5) Richard (d. 1754, s. p.), and (6, 7 and 8) three daughters, one probably born after death of father.

(1) WILLIAM married, 1733, Jean Cullen and had William and Margaret.

(2) THOMAS occurs in the records of Tyrrell county in an affidavit against the tory, Thomas Harrison, July 14th, 1777, and may be the Thomas above, son of Thomas.

Nothing is known of Everitt and John, though the occurrence to-day of the name of Everitt in one of the Georgia branches of the Stubbs family would suggest a descent from Everitt.

(II.) JAMES, the second son of Richard, had at least one son, John, living in 1760. Probably this John, or John the son of Thomas, obtained, in November, 1753, a grant of land on Catfish Creek, Peedee River, South Carolina, who, according to Bishop Gregg's History of South Carolina, was the ancestor of all the Stubbses since known in the Marlboro district, South Carolina.

Hon. Harry W. Stubbs, State Senator, of Williamston, Martin county, N. C., writes that his father was Jesse Rolin Stubbs, who married, March 3d, 1868, Mary W. Badham, in Chowan county; that Jesse was the only son of Martin Stubbs of Bath and moved to Martin county in 1857 or 1858.

The above information is given with the hope that it may stimulate some one in North Carolina to continue these investigations.

THE STUBBSES OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Bishop Gregg, in his "History of the Old Cheraws," says: "John Stubbs, November, 1753, obtained a grant of land on Catfish Creek, Peedee River, and was the ancestor of the Stubbses since known in the Marlboro district."

This John came from North Carolina and is believed to be a son of James of Bath county and grandson of Richard who went to North Carolina from Virginia, 1703, and who was a son of John and Susannah Stubbs of Gloucester county, Va.

Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, in his History of Marlboro county, S. C., says that "Jno." married Rebecca Conner and had issue.

STUBBS FAMILY IN VIRGINIA.

Descendants of Thomas and Mildred Stubbs.

Allusion has already been made to Richard, Thomas, John and Francis as the probable sons of John, (d. 1719) and Susannah Stubbs, of Gloucester county, Virginia. The descendants of Richard, as far as known, have been given. Thomas, the next brother, married Mildred, presumably a Smith, since the name of Smith has been quite common among his descendants. At "Point Lookout," in Robins' Neck, Gloucester county, Virginia, the old burying ground of the Robins, occurs the following epitaphs:

"In memory of Frances Robins, daughter of Thomas and Mildred Stubbs, born 14th February, 1745, died 18th July, 1800."

GEORGIA STUBBSSES.

James and Peter Stubbs, believed to be brothers, went to Georgia from Virginia, the one before and the other after the Revolutionary war. They are believed to be the sons of Francis, the son of John and Susannah Stubbs, previously mentioned as living in Gloucester county, Va. It is probable that Benjamin and Allen of the Revolution were either the sons of Francis or Thomas, and that the Thomas of Washington and Wilkinson counties, Ga., given further on, was a son of Benjamin. No descendants of Allen are known.

JAMES STUBBS was in the Georgia line during the Revolution (Smith's Story of Georgia) and is believed to have moved to Georgia circa 1770. He married, circa 1770, Mary Eliza Scott, daughter of Col. James and Frances (Collier) Scott of Prince Edward county, Va., who moved to South Carolina in 1770, and died in 1776. (Scott Family Tree.)

Col. James Scott was son of Col. Thomas Scott, the immigrant who married Ann Baytop, sister of Col. James Baytop, of Springfield, Gloucester county, Virginia, and daughter of Thomas and — (Alexander) Baytop.

Col. James and Frances (Collier) Scott are the ancestors, also, of the McGehees and Scotts throughout the South.

DESCENDANTS OF PETER AND MARY BARADELL
(PALMER) STUBBS.

PETER, born June 1st, 1744, in Virginia, died 1821 in Putnam county, Ga.; married, 1776, widow of Louis Tyler, nee Mary Baradall Palmer (d. 1804). The following has been furnished by Hon. Lyon G. Tyler, President of William and Mary College, and son of John Tyler, President of the United States:

- (1) John Tyler (d. 1773), married Anne Contesse, daughter of Dr. Louis Contesse, and had:
  - (a) John (Governor of Virginia), who was father of President Tyler.
  - (b) Lewis (d. 1775), married Mary Baradall Palmer.
- (2) Mary (d. 1789), married, 1745, Rev. William Preston (b. 1719, d. 1778).
- (3) Edith, married Rev. Thomas Robinson.
- (4) Joanna, married Dr. Kenneth McKenzie.
- (5) Elizabeth Lowe, married, first, Bowcock (d. 1746); married, second (1753), John Palmer (d. 1760), a lawyer and bursar of William and Mary College, Virginia.

In 1775 Governor John Tyler advertised sale of brick house, near Capitoi, belonging to daughters of late John Palmer. Lewis Tyler was a lawyer and lived in Charlotte county at "Red Hill," afterwards the home of Patrick Henry. From above it appears that Lewis Tyler married his cousin, Mary Baradall Palmer, daughter of his Aunt Elizabeth Lowe Tyler. It is probable that the mother of John Palmer was a Baradall.

The following is taken from the Charlotte county (Va.) records:

Will of Lewis Tyler.—I, Lewis Tyler, of Charlotte county, very low and weak though in perfect senses, do make my last will and testament. Item: My will and desire is that the land I purchased upon Turnip Creek to be sold to relieve my securities of the said land, which land was purchased of John Rogers and Robert Caldwell, which was the property of Robert Daugherty. The residue of my estate, after my debts are paid, I give and bequeath unto my wife, Mary Baradall Tyler. I leave my brother John Tyler, Richard M. Booker and Peter Stubbs executors.

June 30th, 1775.

Frank P. Stubbs

At a Court held for Charlotte county 1st day of September, 1777, the above written last will and testament of Lewis Tyler, deceased, was exhibited in Court by Peter Stubbs, one of his executors therein named, and the same was proved by oath of Joanna Bouldin, one of the witnesses thereto subscribed, and ordered to be certified, and the said Peter Stubbs renouncing in open Court the execution of said will and it appearing that Richard Marot Booker renounces the execution of said will, as also John Tyler, the other executor, as by his letter this day read in Court; therefore on the motion of George Caldwell, with the assent of Peter Stubbs and Mary, his wife, administration with the will annexed of the estate of said Louis Tyler, deceased, is granted him, he making oath according to law and giving security, whereupon he, together with Robert Caldwell, his security, entered into and acknowledged their bond for this purpose. Peter, after marrying the Widow Tyler, moved from Virginia to Wilkes county, Georgia, probably about 1783. Smith in his "History of Georgia" says he came 1787 to 1793, along with John, Sylvester and Abner Hammond. He moved from Elbert (taken from Wilkes) to Putnam, where he died in 1821. Of Mrs. Stubbs it is said, "She suffered during the Revolution with small-pox, from the effects of which she went blind. It is said that she never saw but one (John, the eldest) of her children. ## OTHER BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY.

There is a family of Stubbses, widely scattered through the South, that are the descendants of a George Stubbs who married Sarah Osprey. This George is said to have been the son of James Stubbs and had a brother Thomas, well known to the older members of the family, and another brother, Samuel, of whom nothing is known.

George Stubbs lived and died at Cuthbert, Ga. He had a first cousin by name of Thos. Stubbs. The above, obtained from living members of the family, may be correct. It is possible for George and Samuel to be sons of James and Mary Eliza (Scott) Stubbs, ten of whose children have already been given, among them a son of Thomas. James had a brother, Peter, who had also a son Thomas.

This may be the origin of this family, but it is uncertain and it is therefore deemed prudent to place this branch alone until future investigation shall transfer it to its proper place.

Descendants of John and Anna (Wallace) Stubbs of Georgia, but Originally from North Carolina.

John Stubbs (b. circa 1778-80) moved from North Carolina near the coast on the Dismal Swamp, and settled in Wilkes county, Georgia, about 1800. About one year later he moved to Washington county, Georgia, where he died. He married Anna Wallace in North Carolina (d. 1847), who had half-brothers and sisters by name of Everett; her mother marrying first an Everett and second a Wallace. Hardy Everett (d. 1854), was a half-brother. The above facts gleaned from the family records suggest descent of John from Richard Stubbs of Bath county, North Carolina, who moved from Virginia about 1703. Issue of John and Anna (Wallace) Stubbs.

PERSONAL CHAPTER.

It will not, I trust, be deemed inappropriate to insert here a more extended record of those who are near and dear to the writer.

It was always a pleasant duty to give proper respect, obedience and affection to my devoted parents when they were alive, and now after death it is with peculiar pride that we chronicle their many virtues.

In the old graveyard at Valley Front, a monument of purest marble bears the following inscription:

“OUR MOTHER,

“Ann Walker Carter Stubbs, wife of Jefferson W. Stubbs, Esq., eldest daughter of Capt. James Baytop and Lucy Taliaferro Catlett, his wife, of Springfield, in the county of Gloucester, the ancient seat of the family and place of her nativity. She died on the 22d September, 1894, in the 78th year of her age and the 60th of her marriage. She was of great and exemplary piety and charity and in every relation of life, whether considered as a Christian, a wife, a mother, a mistress, a neighbor or a friend, she was equalled by few and excelled by none.

“Death came peacefully and with gentle step and with tender touch, framed a lullaby fit for a Christian’s rest.”

This monument was erected by her children and their modest tribute to her exalted worth is more than corroborated by the many eulogiums spoken by her neighbors, friends and acquaintances. From a large number only extracts from two will be given. The first is by the Rev. James C. Martin, once her pastor, who officiated at her golden wedding, and a distinguished minister in the Virginia Methodist Conference. He, too, has since gone to reap his reward.

“Her marriage was blessed with a large family of children, a number of whom preceded her to the better land. * * * Her boys on earth are the Hon. James N. Stubbs, state senator; Prof. Thos. Jefferson Stubbs of William and Mary College, and Prof. William C. Stubbs of the Louisiana State University. * * * The writer of these lines was honored with a chief place at their golden wedding, which occurred at Valley Front about ten years ago. Never was there a more beautiful and appropriate hour expressive of a long and happy union of two loving hearts * *

* She was a friend to the poor; the widow and orphan, the sick and the suffering knew the tone of her voice, the kindness of her hands, and rise up to call her blessed. * * * If children have ever had a truer, sweeter, tenderer, nobler Christian mother, I have failed to see her. If husband has ever had a finer type of all that constitutes a real helpmeet, I have never known her. If church and community have cause to mourn the loss of one of their chief treasures, then many eyes were moist with tears when God took this venerable woman to Himself. Mourners white and colored, in great numbers, gathered at Valley Front on the day of her burial. Rev. J. D. Hank, her pastor, assisted by the Rev. Wm. E. Wiatt of the Baptist church—the Rev. Wm. B. Lee of the Episcopal church, performed the funeral services at Valley Front, and then the mortal remains were laid to rest in the graveyard there, where have slept the precious dust of the house of Stubbs for an hundred years.”

The second extract is from the pen of Prof. Alexander Hogg of Fort Worth, Texas, our first male teacher:

“It is a pardonable if a proud recollection of the writer that her boys were among his first pupils.

“The greatest amount of care for the sick and distressed was during the late war, when the troops at Yorktown were stricken, under the terrible results of camp life. Gloucester county extended a welcome to these sufferers, and ‘Valley Front’ cared for over fifty at a time, and thus for months its charity never failed.

“But yesterday, the writer listened to an essay in which the virtues of the Spartan women were extolled. Spartan women! Roman mothers!! Virginia has furnished as great examples of womanly virtue, Christian character and patriotic devotion as the world ever saw.

“She gave the service of her three sons to the Confederate cause.

“The funeral was the largest ever seen in the county. There was about this a fitness and a tenderness that must be mentioned here that will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed the same. Her remains were borne to their last resting place, just over the ravine, in full view of the house—a bright spot—by her sons, her grandsons, her nephews and her cousins. The home at Valley Front will be gloomy this Christmas. The neighbors and friends who are accustomed annually to meet there will miss the bright cheer and large hospitality of this household—this homestead that has been occupied by the same family descendants through several generations.

“Not least among those who will sigh are the old family servants. Few people understand the close and confiding relations that existed between there and their old owners. * * *

"But out of all these losses and the exceeding sorrow of the household, a bright gleam—a radiant assurance comes to us, that society, the church, the state and mankind have been helped, have been infinitely blessed, through the noble character, the Christian life and the patriotic devotion of Mrs. Jefferson W. Stubbs."

Side by side with our mother lies our father, Jefferson W. Stubbs, who followed her to the grave a few years later.

The Richmond Christian Advocate says:

"He had attained his eighty-sixth year and had been for more than sixty years recording steward of Gloucester Circuit, witnessing in that long period as many as six rearrangements of the territory known by that name as a pastoral charge.

"After a long and faithful service, active, intelligent and useful, 'he sleeps well,' his mortal part resting beside the dust of his wife, who was removed from his home a few years since and placed amidst the graves of other loved ones of his own and past generations.

"The place on which he lived so long, being there born and dying there, had been inherited from his father and has been in the possession of the Stubbs family for more than a hundred years. Their title is traced directly to the grant from the British crown."

Tributes of respect were paid to his memory by the stewards of the M. E. Church, South, of which he was a member for nearly sixty years; by the Gloucester Charity School, of which he was for fifty years president, and by the bar and people of Gloucester county, where he was the presiding justice for many years. The following are extracts from resolutions of the Gloucester Charity School:

"WHEREAS, The relations as chief officer and fellow associate of this corporation held for a series of more than four decades, render it proper that we should place upon record our high appreciation of his valuable services as an officer and member, and his merits as a citizen; therefore,

"Resolved, That his memory as a man and as a fellow member, as president of this corporation, and as a Christian gentleman is precious to us all, and will remain unclouded as the years roll on.

"That for his keen perception of right and wrong, his unswerving fidelity to duty, his wise counsels, his discriminating judgment, and prudent forethought, his commendable conservatism, his fervid sympathy for the needy, the Gloucester Charity School and the community have sustained a great loss.

"That no token of affection can be too profuse, no mark of respect too emphatic, no rendition of honor too conspicuous for one whose virtues were so eminent and whose memory is so deeply enshrined in the affections of his associates.

"WM. F. HOGG,

"CHAS. CATLETT,

"THOS. S. TALIAFERRO,

"Committee."

At a meeting of the bar and people of Gloucester county to take appropriate action with reference to the death of Jefferson W. Stubbs, General William B. Taliaferro was made chairman and Maryus Jones secretary, and the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved (1), That we have heard with profound sorrow of the death of Mr. Jeff. W. Stubbs, for many years the presiding justice of the county of Gloucester, as organized before the adoption of the present constitution of the state.

"Resolved (2), That Mr. Stubbs had been prominent in all business and religious affairs of the county for many years, and although his age and infirm health had for some years prevented him from active participation in the affairs of life, we feel that a prominent landmark is missing from the county and the church.

"Resolved (3), That the portrait of Mr. Stubbs now hanging in the courthouse be draped in mourning for thirty days.

"Resolved (4), That these resolutions be spreads on the records of the county court of Gloucester county," etc.

Appropriate remarks were made by Wm. Ap. W. Jones, Maryus Jones, Rev. Wm. E. Wiatt, R. McCandlish, T. G. Jones, Capt. R. M. Page, James L. Stubbs, Jno. B. Donovan, H. R. Corr, and General Wm. B. Taliaferro.

The three sons mentioned in the above notice are:

(1) MAJOR JAMES NEW STUBBS of "Church Hill," Gloucester county, Virginia; a lawyer of large practice. Educated at William and Mary College, and studied law under Judge Jno. W. Brockenborough, Lexington, Va., in 1860-61. After the war he completed his law course at the University of Virginia. Entered the Confederate States Army in 1861, as a member of the "Gloucester" artillery (Red Shirts). Was detailed for duty in the "Signal Corps" early in the war, in which service he remained, rising to the rank of "Major." He accompanied General Jno. Bankhead Magruder to Texas in 1862, and remained with him until the close of the war. He rendered valuable service in the capture of the Harriet Lane off Galveston. After the war he resumed his law studies and began practice in 1866. He was elected member of House of Delegates in 1869, and since that time has served almost continuously either as a delegate or State Senator. He is vice-president of the Board of Visitors of William and Mary College and until recently was president of the Board of Control of the Blind and Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Staunton, Virginia. Has been State Commander of the Confederate Veterans of Virginia and was largely instrumental in the erection of the handsome monument to the Confederate dead at Gloucester Court House. He is a member of Botetourt Lodge No. 7 of Free and Accepted Masons. He married in 1866, Eliza Medlicott, daughter of Joseph and Hester (Shackelford) Medlicott, and a granddaughter of Wm. and Eliza (Munson) Shackelford of Salem, Gloucester county, Virginia.

(2) PROF. THOS. JEFFERSON STUBBS is an A. M. graduate of William and Mary College, and Ph. D. of Arkansas College, Arkansas, in which institution he was a professor for many years. In 1877 and 1879 was a representative in the General Assembly of Arkansas. He was a gallant member, during the entire war, of Co. A. 34th Va. Infantry, Wise's Brigade, a company of heavy artillery at the beginning of the war and known as the "Red Shirts." He is now and has been since 1888, Professor of Mathematics in William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va. He is a Mason and an elder in the Presbyterian church. He married, 1869, Mary Mercer Cosnahan of Williamsburg, Va., daughter of Capt. Joseph B. Cosnahan (C. S. A.) and Louisa Mercer Waller, daughter of Dr. Robt. Page Waller and Julia Weeden Mercer. Capt. Cosnahan was an attorney-at-law, a native of South Carolina and "an accomplished gentleman, a sincere friend and a faithful soldier." Prof. Stubbs' children were all born in Arkansas.

(3) "DR. WILLIAM CARTER STUBBS, after being trained for college with his two brothers by the best private tutors, entered William and Mary College in 1860. This college suspending exercises in 1861, his college curriculum was completed by graduation at Randolph Macon in 1862. In September he entered a company of "Partisan Rangers," commanded by Capt. Thos. C. Clopton. This company became later Co. D, 24th Va. Cavalry, with which he served as an officer throughout the war, surrendering at Appomattox Court House in April, 1865. In October, 1865, he resumed his studies at the University with his two brothers, mentioned above, and remained until graduation. While at the University of Virginia he was a competitor for the Mathematical medal, nobly but unsuccessfully contending with Gaetano Lanza, now professor of applied mathematics in the School of Technology, Boston, Mass. In 1869 he accepted a professorship in East Alabama College, and in 1872 was made professor of chemistry in Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College, Auburn, Ala. In 1878 was made state chemist of Alabama. In 1885 was called to Louisiana to take charge of Louisiana Sugar Experiment Station, established by the sugar planters of this state. He was soon appointed professor of agriculture in Louisiana State University and director of State Experiment Station at Baton Rouge. In 1886 was made by Legislature, state chemist of Louisiana, and in 1887 director of the North Louisiana Experiment Station at Calhoun, La. In 1892 was empowered by the Legislature of the state, with suitable appropriation, to conduct a geological survey of the state. In the same year the Audubon Sugar School was established and placed under his direction. From small beginnings he has witnessed with delight the evolution of agricultural teachings, until to-day few states can claim more agencies at work in behalf of agriculture than Louisiana. The gradually increasing appropriations made biennially by the Legislature of the state are the best evidences of the appreciation of the public of his laborious work. He has published over one hundred bulletins upon various agricultural topics and has become an authority on Southern agriculture. His published works on sugar cane and the manufacture of sugar are known and appreciated wherever sugar cane is grown. He has also published several brochures on genealogy. His residence is Audubon Park, New Orleans. He is a member of Camp No. 9, C. S. V., and of General Jno. B. Gordon's staff, holding his commission as Brigadier General. He was commissioned, in 1900, by Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, to visit the Hawaiian Islands, report upon their agricultural resources and locate an experiment station. His report to the Secretary was transmitted to Congress by President McKinley and published as House Document No. 368. He has served as state commissioner at the following expositions: Cotton States Exposition, Atlanta, Ga.; Pan-American at Buffalo, and that at Charleston. He has been recently appointed commissioner for Louisiana at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis for 1904. He is a Mason, a member of Knights of Honor, and a Democrat. He married, in 1875, Elizabeth Saunders Blair, daughter of Henry Dickinson and Mary Louisa (Saunders) Blair, and granddaughter of Col. James E. and Mary (Watkins) Saunders of Rocky Hill, Lawrence county, Alabama. Her father was son of John J. and Martha (Ray) Blair of Camden, S. C., and Mobile, Ala. Mrs. Stubbs, aided by her grandfather, Col. James E. Saunders, has recently published "Early Settlers of Alabama, and Notes and Genealogies," an octavo volume of over 500 pages."

NEW EXCURSUS.

It is to be regretted that so little data of this family has been collected. Only a few fragments can, therefore, be presented.

EDWARD NEW, of Charles City county, Virginia, married Sarah, daughter of Edward Bland (son of John of London, will 1680). They had a son, JOHN NEW, living in 1752. (Hening, VI., p. 313).

There were News and Duvals in Henrico county, Virginia, in 1771.

THOMAS NEW and FRANCIS NEW, a deed made by them and Phoebe Booth, 1680.

THOMAS NEW, deputy clerk, Essex county, Virginia, 1685.

JAMES and SAMUEL NEW, on the Savannah river, Georgia, 1754.

It is probable that the JAMES NEW mentioned in an old survey of Ware parish, in 1754, was the father of the following:

I. DANIEL NEW, clerk of Petsworth Church, 1739-1758; will 1775, probated 1776, mentions children:

(1) Daniel, married daughter of Wm. Duval (d. 1785), and had James and Carter (and three or four daughters), members of vestry, Petsworth parish, 1777.

(2) Jno. New, kept ordinary at Gloucester Court House, and in 1776 was thanked by Capt. Joseph Spencer of 2nd Va., for kindness when they marched to Gwynn's Island. (Virginia Gazette, 1776.) He married —, and had James, John, Annie and Pattie.

(3) Martha New, married, first, Guthrie; and second, Dullier; issue, Aphia, who married Henry Enos and had issue.

(4) Sarah New, married Wm. Shackelford (d. s. p.)

(5) Elizabeth New, married — Garland.

II. ELIZABETH NEW (d. 1778), married circa 1760, Wm. Stubbs, and had James New Stubbs, the grandfather of the writer.

III. ANTHONY NEW (b. 1747 in Gloucester county, Virginia), removed to Caroline county. Member House of Delegates, 1787. Member of Congress from December 1793 to March 1805. Removed to Elkton, Ky. Member of Congress from Kentucky in 12th, 15th and 17th Congresses. Died March 2d, 1833. Married Nancy Wiatt of Caroline county, Virginia, and had (1) Anthony, who remained in Virginia and married Ann S. Bracken, and had Fannie Bracken New, who married John Carnes Cooke. (See Cooke Pamphlet.)

Emanuel Jones Thruston in 1820 administered the estates of Anthony New and his wife, Ann S. (Bracken) New. He was also the guardian of Fannie Bracken New, who married John Carnes Cooke.

A daughter of Anthony and Nancy (Wiatt) New married — Starke of Norfolk, and was the mother of L. D. Starke, member of the law firm of Starke & Starke, Norfolk, Va. (1895).
